AN ACT

TO INCORPORATE

THE NEW YORK ACADEMY OF MEDICINE.

Passed June 23, 1851.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. J. Kearny Rodgers, James Anderson, Galen Carter, Willard Parker, John H. Griscom, Edward L. Beadle, Isaac Wood, James O. Pond, and John G. Adams, and such other persons as are now associated as The New York Academy of Medicine, or may hereafter become associated with them, are hereby constituted a body corporate, by the name of

for the purpose of promoting the advancement of Medical Science by such means as to them shall appear expedient and proper.

SECTION 2. The said corporation shall have power to make and adopt a Constitution and By-Laws, rules and regulations for the admission, suspension, and expulsion of its members, and their government; the election of its officers, and define their duties; and for the safe-keeping and protection of its property and funds, and, from time to time, to alter or repeal such Constitution, By-Laws, rules and regulations. The present officers shall hold their respective offices until others shall be chosen in their places.

SECTION 3. The said corporation may purchase and hold any real or personal estate the annual income of which shall not exceed five thousand dollars.

SECTION 4. The said corporation shall possess the general powers, and be subject to the general restrictions and liabilities prescribed in the third title of the eighteenth chapter of the first part of the Revised Statutes.

SECTION 5. The corporators hereby incorporated are authorized to appoint one delegate to represent them in the State Medical Society,* with all the powers and privileges which delegates for the respective Medical Colleges of this State possess.

SECTION 6. The Legislature may at any time alter or repeal this act.

State of New York, Secretary's Office.

I certify, that I have compared the foregoing with the original law on file in this office, and that the same is a correct transcript therefrom, and of the whole of said original.

[L. S.] Given under my hand and seal of office, at the City of Albany, this Twenty-eighth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one.

A. G. JOHNSON, *Dept. Sec. of State.

CHAP. 375.

AN ACT TO CONFER CERTAIN POWERS AND PRIVILEGES UPON THE NEW YORK ACADEMY OF MEDICINE.

Passed June 2, 1877, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The present Board of Trustees of The New York Academy of Medicine, as now organized, consisting of five members, shall be continued, and on the expiration of the term of any of the said Trustees a successor shall be elected, who shall hold his office for five years, and until his successor shall be elected.

SECTION 2. In case of the death or resignation of any Trustee during his term, his successor shall be elected for the residue of his term thus expired.

SECTION 3. On the expiration of the term of any of the said Trustees, a successor shall be elected, who shall hold his office for five years, and until his successor shall be elected.

SECTION 4. The said Corporation may take and hold in trust any personal or real estate, either by purchase, gift, bequest, or devise, the annual income of which shall not exceed ten thousand dollars.

SECTION 5. Any property so purchased, given, bequeathed, or devised to the said Corporation, unless the use is otherwise specifically designated by the donor, shall be added to and form a part of The General Permanent Fund held in Trust by said Corporation, the interest or income of which shall only be used by the said cor-

[L. S.] tary of State, at the City of Albany, this fourth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven.

JOHN BIGELOW, Secretary of State.

THE NEW YORK ACADEMY OF MEDICINE.

CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE I.

NAME OF CORPORATION.

This Association shall be called The New York Academy of Medicine, and shall be composed of Fellows, Associate Fellows, Honorary Fellows, and Benefactors, but only the first class of Fellows shall have any right, title, or interest, in the real or personal property, or funds, of the Academy, or be eligible for office, or have the right to vote.

ARTICLE II.

OBJECT.

The object of the Academy shall be:

The Investigation and Promotion of the Science and Art of Medicine, and the maintenance of a Public Medical Library.

ARTICLE III.

FELLOWSHIPS.

SECTION 1. A candidate for Fellowship must be a resident of the United States of America and a graduate or licentiate in medicine or surgery, who has been engaged in active medical practice for the three years immediately preceding the application for Fellowship, or who is actively engaged in scientific research, or in teaching, in subjects allied to medicine, in a reputable institution, college, laboratory, or hospital in the United States.

The number of Fellows residing in the City of New York shall be limited to twelve hundred and the number not residing in the City to two hundred and fifty.

SECTION 2. A candidate for Associate Fellowship must be a resident of the United States of America and a graduate of a scientific institution, or college, other than medical, dental, or pharmaceutical, who is actively engaged in scientific research, or in teaching, in subjects allied to medicine, in a reputable institution, college, laboratory or hospital in the United States.

The number of Associate Fellows shall be limited to two hundred and fifty.

SECTION 3. A physician or scientist of the United States or of a foreign country of exceptional eminence in medicine or science and actively engaged therein may be elected an Honorary Fellow. The number of Honorary Fellows shall be limited to fifty.

SECTION 4. A person who has rendered illustrious services to the Academy may be elected a Benefactor at any stated meeting upon the recommendation of the Council.

ARTICLE IV.

OFFICERS AND TERMS OF OFFICE.

SECTION 1. There shall be a President, three Vice-Presidents, a Recording Secretary, a Corresponding Secretary, a Treasurer, and five Trustees.

These officers, together with the chairman of each Standing Committee, shall constitute the Council for the transaction of the general executive business of the Academy. The five elected Trustees, and ex-officio, the President, the Recording Secretary, and the Treasurer shall constitute the Board of Trustees for the transaction of the financial business of the Academy. There shall also be an Assistant Secretary, a Statistical Secretary, and an Executive Librarian, each of whom shall be appointed by the Council.

SECTION 2. The President shall be elected for the term of two years; the Vice-Presidents for the term of three years, one retiring and one being elected each year; the Recording Secretary, the Corresponding Secretary, and the Treasurer, for the term of three years; and the Trustees for the term of five years, one retiring and one being elected each year. The Assistant Secretary, the Statistical Secretary, and the Executive Librarian, shall be appointed for three years.

The terms of all officers shall begin and end on the first day of January, excepting that officers elected to fill vacancies shall assume office immediately on election.

ARTICLE V.

COMMITTEES.

The following Standing Committees shall be elected for the term of five years, and shall consist of five members each, one member for each committee retiring and one being elected each year: 1. A Committee on Admission. 2. A Committee on Library.

ARTICLE VI.

SECTIONS.

The Academy may be divided into Sections, as follows: 1, Medicine; 2, Surgery; 3, Obstetrics and Gynaecology; 4, Orthopaedics; 5, Neurology and Psychiatry; 6, Ophthalmology; 7, Otology; 8, Laryngology and Rhinology; 9, Paediatrics; 10, Genito-Urinary Diseases; 11, Dermatology; 12, Public Health; and as many more as may at any time be proposed, in writing, by twenty or more Fellows and approved by a three-fourths vote of the Fellows present and voting at a stated meeting of the Academy.

ARTICLE VII.

CERTIFICATE AND RESIGNATION OF FELLOWSHIP.

SECTION 1. Every Fellow, Associate Fellow, and Honorary Fellow, on election to and completion of membership, shall be furnished with a copy of the Constitution and By-Laws of the Academy and a duly authenticated certificate of Fellowship.

SECTION 2. The certificate may be revoked for cause; and in case of refusal to surrender the same, the Academy may publish such revocation in the medical journals.

SECTION 3. Any Fellow, or Associate Fellow, who has complied with the requirements of the Constitution and By-Laws, may resign his Fellowship, by presenting at a stated meeting a communication in writing to that effect approved by the Council; but no resignation shall be valid until accepted by the Academy.

ARTICLE VIII.

DISCIPLINE.

SECTION 1. The Academy may reprimand, or suspend, or drop, or expel a Fellow, or an Associate Fellow, for violation of its regulations, or the commission of any act which unfavorably affects the character of the medical profession, or the interests or reputation of the Academy, or of its Fellows, or Associate Fellows.

SECTION 2. A three-fourths vote of the Fellows present and voting shall be necessary to reprimand, or suspend, or drop, or expel a Fellow, or Associate Fellow. A vote to expel a Fellow, or Associate Fellow, shall not be taken unless the printed call for the meeting contains a notice of the proposition to expel and the accused shall have been duly notified by mail in a sealed envelope at least one week previously at his last given address. In case of a proposition to reprimand, or suspend, or drop a Fellow, or an Associate Fellow, a private notice to that effect sent to said Fellow, or Associate Fellow, by mail shall suffice and no general announcement to the Fellows shall be required

ARTICLE IX.

AMENDMENT.

This Constitution shall be amended only by a vote of three-fourths of the Fellows present and voting at a stated or special meeting of the Academy, subsequent to one at which a proposition to that effect shall have been made in writing, and then only after the proposed amendment shall have been printed and sent by mail to every Fellow at his last given address.

BY-LAWS.

I. MEETINGS.

SECTION 1. The stated meetings of the Academy shall be held at its office or place of transacting its business affairs in the Borough of Manhattan, New York, N. Y., on the first and third Thursdays of each month, from October to May, inclusive, at 8.30 P. M., except when the stated day is a legal holiday, in which case the meeting may be omitted by order of the Council or the Academy.

SECTION 2. The Anniversary Discourse shall be delivered in November, at a meeting to which the public shall be invited.

SECTION 3. At the first stated meeting in November all nominations for the officers to be elected by the Academy at the Annual Election shall be made. At the first stated meeting in December the Annual Election shall be held. The first stated meeting in January shall be the Annual Meeting, at which all Annual Reports shall be presented, and the addresses of the retiring President and the incoming President delivered.

SECTION 4. Special meetings may be called at any time by the President, or by order of the Council, and shall be called upon the requisition, in writing, of any twenty Fellows, and may be held at the regular meeting place of the Academy, or in any suitable place or hall, within the limits of the City of New York, as shall be designated by the Council, or the Academy.

SECTION 5. For stated meetings at least five days' notice shall be given, and for special meetings at least three days' notice.

Section 6. The notices for all stated or special meetings of the Academy shall be in print or writing, and sent by mail, addressed in each instance to the last given address of each and every Fellow, and Associate Fellow, of the Academy, and the notices shall state the place, date, and hour of such proposed meeting.

At special meetings no other business shall be conducted or enacted except that stated in the call for the meeting. The affidavit of mailing by the Assistant Secretary of the Academy of such notice for the call of a meeting, shall be sufficient proof of the service of such notice upon each and every Fellow, or Associate Fellow, for any and all purposes.

Section 7. At all special and stated meetings, twenty-one Fellows shall be necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of any executive business.

II. PRESIDENT.

The President shall preside over all meetings of the Academy and of the Council; regulate all debates; call special meetings; sign all diplomas, letters testimonial, and other documents requiring his signature; appoint all committees not otherwise provided for; announce the result of all votes; designate one or more Fellows to prepare suitable memoirs of deceased Fellows, and be, ex officio, a member of all the Standing Committees, and perform such other duties as legally pertain to the office.

III. VICE-PRESIDENTS.

The Vice-Presidents shall assist the President in the discharge of his duties, and shall, in the order of their seniority in the office, perform the duties of the President in case of his absence or disability.

IV. RECORDING SECRETARY.

The Recording Secretary shall keep minutes of the proceedings of all meetings of the Academy and of the Council; notify officers and members of committees of their appointment and the duties required of them; sign diplomas, and certify all official acts requiring certification; attest and affix the common seal to all diplomas, letters testimonial, and other documents requiring the seal of the Academy; conduct the domestic correspondence of the Academy; notify candidates of their election to Fellowship, or Associate Fellowship, and receive the signatures of Fellows elect to the Constitution and By-Laws; be, ex officio, a member of all the Standing Committees; and transact such other business as may be ordered by the Academy, or the Council, or that may pertain to the office.

V. ASSISTANT SECRETARY.

SECTION 1. The Assistant Secretary shall keep a list of the Fellows and Associate Fellows; issue notices of all stated or special meetings, which for stated meetings shall be mailed on the Saturday previous to the day of meeting; assist the Recording Secretary in the discharge of his duties, and in case of his absence or disability perform them.

SECTION 2. He shall keep a Register in which the signatures of the Fellows in attendance at each meeting shall be entered and, as soon as a quorum is thus ascertained to be present, notify the President of the fact.

VI. CORRESPONDING SECRETARY.

The Corresponding Secretary shall take charge of and conduct the foreign correspondence of the Academy. He shall also report the death of each Honorary Fellow, and render an annual report to the Council in December of each year

VII. STATISTICAL SECRETARY.

The Statistical Secretary shall keep a tabular record of the names of every former and present Fellow of the Academy, with the place and date of birth, and of graduation; the educational attainments; the offices held in the Academy; and the date, place, and cause of death of each Fellow, with such other circumstances as shall fully illustrate the vital statistics of the Academy. He shall report to the Academy, the decease of each Fellow, with such facts relating to his life and death as may be obtainable; and shall render an annual report to the Council in December of each year.

VIII. TREASURER.

SECTION 1. The Treasurer shall be required to give a bond satisfactory to the Board of Trustees for the proper performance of the duties of the office, the expense of procuring such bond to be borne by the Academy.

SECTION 2. The Treasurer shall receive, under the direction of the Board of Trustees, all moneys, funds, rentals, admission fees, dues and other income due the Academy, and deposit the same in an approved bank, trust company, or institution for savings, until otherwise invested, expended, or apportioned, by the Board of Trustees, or the Academy; pay all bills or sums directed by the Board of Trustees, or the Academy, and no others; keep a correct and separate account of all moneys and funds received and expended; keep all books, papers, bonds, and documents of value in his care in a place of safety; give a statement of all separate funds of the Academy to the Board of Trustees each month, and to the Board of Trustees, and to the Council, annually, in December, and whenever requested by either; also have his books and accounts ready for inspection whenever requested by either, and deliver up, when called upon by the Board of Trustees, or the Academy, all moneys, papers, books and documents, belonging to the Academy which may be in his possession, to his successor in office, or to any other person appointed and authorized to receive them. He shall send to the Fellows, and Associate Fellows, the bills for annual dues or other indebtedness by mail on January first in each year. He shall report to the Board of Trustees, and to the Council, in January of each year, the names of all Fellows, and Associate Fellows, who have not paid their dues or other indebtedness for the previous year, and have thereby forfeited their membership in the Academy. He shall be present at all elections for officers of the Academy, to receive dues and inform the tellers of the names of delinquents and of those not entitled to vote.

IX. BOARDS AND COMMITTEES.

SECTION 1. The Council, the Board of Trustees, and the Standing Committees, shall meet in January in each year to organize, and as often thereafter as may be necessary to transact their business; shall keep regular minutes of their proceedings, recorded in suitable books provided for the purpose, and render an Annual Report in December in each year to the Council.

SECTION 2. They shall in addition to such duties as are hereinafter assigned to them, consider all matters particularly referred to them by the Academy, or the Council, and report thereon.

SECTION 3. When any member of a Standing Committee, of the Council, or of the Board of Trustees, shall have been absent from four consecutive stated meetings, without satisfactory excuse, such absence shall be reported to the President, who shall, on the approval of the Council, declare the seat vacant.

SECTION 4. If an officer of the Academy, or of a Section, or of a Committee, shall fail to discharge his duties to the satisfaction of the Academy, he may be dismissed from his office by a two-thirds vote of the Fellows present and voting at a stated meeting of the Academy; but no motion for dismissal shall be acted upon until the Recording Secretary shall have notified the alleged delinquent by mail at his last given address, and all Fellows by mail, of such proposed action and the date of the meeting at which action is to be taken.

SECTION 5. Every member of a Committee, or any Fellow, or Associate Fellow, having funds or property belonging to the Academy, shall give up the same on demand to the person authorized to receive it.

SECTION 6. No Fellow, Associate Fellow, officer, or employee, and no Committee, or Section of the Academy shall incur any obligation or contract involving the expenditure of money without first obtaining the consent of the Board of Trustees.

X. COUNCIL.

SECTION 1. The Council shall supervise the general affairs and scientific work of the Academy, and of the Sections, also the duties and work of the officers of the Academy, and of its Committees, and Sections, and shall transact the general executive business of the Academy.

SECTION 2. It shall annually in December, and oftener, if deemed advisable, audit the financial accounts of the Treasurer, and of the Board of Trustees.

It shall also annually in December estimate for and recommend to the Academy such appropriations for the ensuing year as shall be considered necessary to conduct properly the Library, and the scientific work of the Academy.

SECTION 3. It shall appoint the Executive Librarian, the Assistant Secretary, and the Statistical Secretary.

It shall also be authorized to appoint Special Committees from the Fellows, or Associate Fellows, of the Academy, to which may be referred questions in public health and medical economics brought before the Academy and referred to the Council. The conclusions of such Committees shall be reported to and acted upon by the Council, and then reported by the Council to the Academy at stated or special meetings.

SECTION 4. It shall nominate such Fellows, or scientists, as are to deliver special discourses or lectures on scientific subjects, before the Academy; and also, a Fellow, or other competent person, to deliver the Anniversary Discourse.

SECTION 5. It shall determine the propriety of permitting any paper to be read before the Academy or the Sections by a person not a Fellow of the Academy.

SECTION 6. It shall select such essays, papers, memoirs, or reports as are to appear in the printed transactions of the Academy; and determine the price of all publications offered for sale.

SECTION 7. It shall receive and consider any nomination for Honorary Fellowship made in writing by three Fellows, and, if it shall approve the same, it shall announce to the Fellows, on the regular Academy notice, the name and address of the nominee with his professional titles and positions, and refer the nomination to the Academy for action.

SECTION 8. It shall appoint all delegates to other societies.

SECTION 9. It shall, by a two-thirds vote, fill all vacancies in offices until the next annual election, except in the offices of President, Vice-President and Trustee, which shall be filled by the Academy for the unexpired portion of the term at a stated meeting or at a special meeting called for that purpose.

SECTION 10. It shall voluntarily, or on a written statement signed by a complainant, take cognizance of any breach of the rules of the Academy, or of any unprofessional conduct, on the part of a Fellow, or Associate Fellow. The Council may, after an investigation and hearing, reprimand or suspend the offender, dismiss a complaint, or transmit its findings thereon to the Academy, for further action.

SECTION 11. It shall ascertain at the regular meeting in January of each year the names of all Fellows, or Associate Fellows, who have forfeited their membership by the non-payment of dues or other indebtedness, and who have been dropped, and report the same to the Academy at its next stated meeting.

SECTION 12. It shall have power at any regular meeting by a unanimous vote of those present, to remit the current dues or arrearage, in whole or in part, of any Fellow or Associate Fellow who has paid ten or more annual dues and who is suffering from financial or physical disability.

SECTION 13. It shall annually in December make a full report of all important business transacted by it during the year for presentation to the Academy at the Annual Meeting.

SECTION 14. Seven members of the Council shall constitute a quorum.

SECTION 15. Special meetings of the Council may be called by the President of the Academy, and shall be called by him on the written request of five members of the Council.

SECTION 16. The following shall be the order of business at the meetings of the Council,

1. Reading of the Minutes.
2. Report of the Board of Trustees.
3. Report of Committee on Admission
4. Report of Committee on Library.
5. Report of Officers.
6. Report of Special Committees
7. Unfinished Business.
8. New Business.
9. Adjournment.

XI. BOARD OF TRUSTEES.

SECTION 1. The Board of Trustees shall have charge of all the finances, the vested funds, the personal property and the real estate of the Academy; shall appoint and have charge of the employees of the Academy, and determine the salary or wages of each; and shall provide accommodations for the Library, and for the various meetings held in the Academy.

SECTION 2. It shall be their duty to supervise and direct the Treasurer in the investment of the funds of the Academy; report the investments and the condition of the funds and property aforesaid annually, in December, and oftener when directed, to the Council for transmission to the Academy.

SECTION 3. The funds and property in their care shall only be used as specified by the donors, and as provided for by the amended charter and by the Constitution and By-Laws of the Academy.

SECTION 4. No money shall be paid excepting on the order of the Board of Trustees and all checks and all orders withdrawing deposits from any bank, trust company or other institution shall be signed by the Chairman, or Acting Chairman, of the Board of Trustees, and by the Treasurer.

SECTION 5. Four members of the Board of Trustees shall constitute a quorum at the meetings

XII. COMMITTEE ON ADMISSION.

SECTION 1. A candidate for Fellowship must sign and present to the Committee on Admission an application endorsed by three Fellows personally acquainted with him and shall send his license to practice medicine, and, when requested, his medical diploma, and when he is not a resident of the City of New York, a duly attested letter from the Secretary of the County Medical Society in the county in which he resides, or, if there be no such society, then from the secretary of any incorporated medical society in the State in which he resides, stating the professional standing of the applicant, except that a graduate or licentiate in medicine or surgery who is not practising medicine and is not registered shall present his medical diploma and a signed statement showing that he is actively engaged in scientific research, or in teaching, in subjects allied to medicine, in a reputable institution, college, laboratory, or hospital in the United States; and excepting further that a candidate who is a medical officer of the United States Army, Navy, or Marine Hospital Service shall present, in lieu of such statement, his commission in the service, and, when requested, his medical diploma.

SECTION 2. A candidate for Associate Fellowship must sign and present to the Committee on Admission an application endorsed by three Fellows personally acquainted with him and shall send his diploma and a signed statement showing that he is actively engaged in scientific research, or in teaching, in subjects allied to medicine, in a reputable institution, college, laboratory, or hospital, in the United States.

SECTION 3. Upon receipt of a properly endorsed application for admission to Fellowship, or Associate Fellowship, with the required professional credentials, the Committee on Admission shall make due inquiry concerning the candidate, and all information obtained shall be held strictly confidential. It shall within four months report, through its Chairman, to the Council, and announce on the regular notice of the Academy, the names of such candidates as may be deemed worthy of admission, which report shall specify the sources whence each derived his diploma and license or professional credentials to practice his profession, with the dates thereof, and the names of the endorsers. If there be no valid objection, a candidate so announced may subsequently be recommended for election to Fellowship, or Associate Fellowship, by the Committee on Admission, provided that two weeks shall have elapsed since the first announcement, and that the name of the candidate shall have been announced on the Academy notice for the meeting at which the vote is to be taken.

Section 4. An Associate Fellow in good standing, who is a graduate in medicine and eligible for election as a Fellow, may, on approval of the Committee on Admission, be elected a Fellow, by the Academy, after announcement on the regular notice for a given stated meeting.

Section 5. Election to Fellowship, Associate Fellowship, or Honorary Fellowship, shall be by ballot, after due notice by mail, to each Fellow and by a three-fourths vote of the Fellows present and voting at a stated meeting.

Section 6. The Committee on Admission shall annually in December, make a report of its proceedings for the year to the Council.

XIII. COMMITTEE ON LIBRARY.

Section 1. The Committee on Library, through its Chairman, shall have a general supervision of the Library of the Academy, and of the work of the Executive Librarian, the Librarian and the Assistant Librarians.

It shall annually, in December, make a full report upon the condition and needs of the Library to the Council, and shall then also furnish an estimate of the money necessary for the proper conduct of the Library during the ensuing year. The expenditure of the funds appropriated for the Library by the Academy, shall be made by the Executive Librarian, under the direction of the Committee on Library.

Section 2. The Executive Librarian shall attend the meetings of the Committee on Library and of the Council, and shall have charge of all the books, manuscripts, anatomical or pathological specimens, apparatus, instruments, portraits, medals, coins and scientific property of the Academy, and shall attend to their labelling, cataloguing, arrangement and preservation. He shall cause to be affixed to each donation the name of the donor. He may sell the publications of the Academy and also any triplicate copies of books and periodicals not needed by the Library, at prices established by the Council, and shall pay the proceeds to the Treasurer on receipt of same.

Section 3. He shall, as soon as practicable after the receipt of books, periodicals, etc., for the Library, make arrangements for their proper use under such regulations as the Committee on Library shall adopt, subject to the approval of the Council. He shall report at each stated meeting of the Academy such donations to the Library as may have been received since the preceding meeting, with the names of the donors, and he shall also make an annual report to the Council covering the work of his office, together with such recommendations as he may deem proper.

Section 4. The Fellows and Associate Fellows of the Academy, may take books, periodicals and pamphlets from the Library, for their personal use only, on application to the Executive Librarian, or the Librarian, for a period of one week with the privilege of one immediate renewal for a like period if the same shall not be wanted by others.

Section 5. Books, periodicals, pamphlets, charts and plates of exceptional rarity or value, shall not be included in the above provision. No primary copies of books or periodicals shall be taken from the Library till three months after accession

Section 6. Receipts shall be given for books, periodicals, pamphlets, etc., at the time they are taken from the Library, and the borrower shall be held rigidly responsible for their proper care and shall be required to return the original copy or copies borrowed in as perfect a condition as when received, when the limit of time shall have expired, or sooner upon demand of those in charge of the Library. (See Section 14.)

Section 7. Candidates for Fellowship, after announcement by the Committee on Admission, may be granted the privileges of the Library on the payment of a fee of $20 a calendar year or pro rata in advance. The amount so paid in a given calendar year shall be deducted from the candidate's admission fee if he be elected to Fellowship in the calendar year for which the fee is paid.

Section 8. Any person approved by the Library Committee and by the Council, may become an annual subscriber on such conditions as the Council may impose. Annual subscribers shall be entitled to a card giving the privileges of the library, good for one year from the date of their acceptance.

Section 9. On approval of the Council the accredited representatives of publishers of medical books and periodicals who present their publications to the Academy may be given the privileges of the Library for a period of time not exceeding three months but capable of renewal by the Council.

Section 10. The privilege of consulting the Library (but not of taking out books) may be granted for one month, when authorized by a card signed by the Executive Librarian or his representative, on written request by the applicant, to—

a. Accredited representatives of members of the Academy on application in writing by the latter.

b. Physicians introduced by the Chairman of the Library Committee or by the Executive Librarian.

c. Officials of the Public departments of New York City, of the State of New York and of the United States, when in discharge of their public duties.

d. Workers in accredited Institutes for Medical Research on request and introduction in writing by the Directors of such Institutes.

e. Members of the teaching corps of the incorporated universities or colleges in the State of New York, or members of other incorporated societies which have libraries, and which shall give reciprocating privileges to the Fellows of the Academy, on request and introduction in writing by the Dean or Secretary of any such institution.

f. No one shall be introduced under the provision of this Section more than once in six months except by special permission of the Council.

SECTION 11. Cards of admission to the Library, valid for one week, may be granted in the same manner to medical practitioners or scientists visiting the city.

SECTION 12. The Executive Librarian shall keep a book in the Library, in which shall be recorded the names of all persons to whom cards of admission to the Library are given, the dates of issue and of termination of the card, and the reason for such issue.

SECTION 13. The Executive Librarian shall report at every stated meeting of the Council the names of those to whom cards have been granted since the preceding meeting.

SECTION 14. Any Fellow, Associate Fellow, or other person violating the rules of the Library, shall, in the discretion of the Committee on Library, subject to the Approval of the Council, be suspended from the privileges of the Library for a period of time and shall be liable to a fine.

SECTION 15. The Library shall be open to the Fellows and Associate Fellows of the Academy and to persons specified in Sections 8, 9, 10 and 11, from 9 a.m. to 10.30 p.m., and to the public from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. Sundays and legal holidays, and such portion of the summer season as the Council shall direct, are excepted.

Section 16. The Executive Librarian, the Librarian, or an Assistant Librarian, shall be present and on duty when the Library is open, and shall see that the foregoing rules and all rules referring to the Library of the Academy or to public libraries in general, are respected and enforced.

Section 17. Copies of this By-Law, and of all rules relating to the Library, shall be posted permanently in the Library and on the Bulletin Board of the Academy.

XIV. SECTIONS.

Section 1. The Sections shall meet once a month from October to May inclusive, unless otherwise provided or permitted by the Council, and shall keep regular minutes of their proceedings in suitable books which shall be provided by and belong to the Academy.

Section 2. Every Section shall elect its Chairman and Secretary at the December meeting, and at the next preceding meeting shall make nominations for these offices and announce the nominations on the Academy folder, and on the special announcements of the Section for the December meeting. The elections shall be by ballot, and no Fellow who is not regularly assigned to the Section, or who is in arrears or whose current dues remain unpaid, or who is under suspension, shall be entitled to vote or be eligible for office. The Secretary of each Section shall promptly notify the Recording Secretary of the Academy of the result of the election.

Section 3. The Sections shall each furnish papers or prepare discussions for a Stated Meeting of the Academy, on request of and due notice from the President, but shall not be required to do so oftener than once each year. No Section shall institute a procedure of a public character or permit a person not a Fellow of the Academy to read a paper before it, without first submitting the proposed project and the name of the author and reader, and the title of the paper to be read, to the Council, through the President, for consideration and approval.

SECTION 4. Every Section shall through its officers render to the Council in December in each year an Annual Report which shall state the number of Fellows and Associate Fellows affiliated with the Section, the number present at each meeting during the year, the average attendance of members and guests at the meetings, the number and titles of the papers presented, and the numbers, respectively, of patients and specimens exhibited, and the number taking part in discussion; and shall give in full all resolutions other than complimentary passed by the Section, and shall also report the names of any eminent professional or lay guests present at the meetings of the Section.

SECTION 5. No officer or member of the Section, and no Section shall incur any liability or indebtedness against the Academy without first obtaining the consent of the Board of Trustees, and no subscription for the special announcement of a Section shall be received from a non-member of the Academy.

XV. FUNDS, INVESTMENTS AND REAL ESTATE.

SECTION 1. The securities, investments, moneys and trust funds of the Academy shall not be disposed of, or transferred in whole or in part from one fund, to another, unless with the approval of the Board of Trustees and the Council, and by a two-thirds vote of the Fellows present, and voting, at a stated or special meeting of the Academy, and after notice given at a previous stated or special meeting; except that bills for the current and necessary expenses and betterments of the Academy may be paid, and investments of the funds may be made, by order of the Board of Trustees.

SECTION 2. No loan or investment of the moneys or trust funds of the Academy shall be made except in United States, New York State, and New York City bonds, or on bond and first mortgage on improved real estate in the City of New York, not to exceed two-thirds of a conservative valuation of the property, or as a deposit in an accredited bank, or trust company, or in an institution for savings.

Section 3. No money shall be borrowed by the Academy, except on approval of the Board of Trustees and the Council, and by a vote of three-fourths of the Fellows present and voting at a stated or special meeting of the Academy, and after notice at a previous special or stated meeting.

Section 4. The real estate comprising the premises of the Academy shall only be sold to purchase and secure a new location and premises; in which case the amount realized on said sale, or so much thereof as shall be necessary, shall be appropriated to the payment of said purchase. A vote of two-thirds of the Fellows present and voting at a stated or special meeting, and notice at a previous stated or special meeting, including a notice by mail to every Fellow, shall be necessary to authorize such sale. Any balance remaining from the sale of the Academy's premises shall be placed in The General Permanent Fund.

Section 5. The admission fees of new Fellows shall be placed in The Endowment Fund. The income from this Fund shall be expended as necessary for the construction, betterment or maintenance of the Academy.

XVI. ADMISSION FEE AND DUES.

Section 1. Each and every newly elected Fellow shall pay an admission fee of twenty-five dollars.

Section 2. The annual dues of every Fellow residing, practising, having an office or being engaged in business in New York City shall be twenty dollars, and of all other Fellows five dollars each, payable on the first of January in each year commencing with the first January following election to Fellowship.

Section 3. The annual dues of every Associate Fellow residing, practising, having an office, or being engaged in business in New York City shall be twenty dollars, and of all other Associate Fellows five dollars each. The dues for the current calendar year shall be payable in full, by an Associate Fellow, on election to membership, and thereafter on the first of January in each year.

SECTION 4. An Associate Fellow shall be exempt from paying an admission fee unless subsequently elected a Fellow, in which case he shall pay the regular admission fee and be exempt from dues for that calendar year.

SECTION 5. Any Fellow, or Associate Fellow, who shall have failed to pay his dues or indebtedness to the Academy by the first day of April in any year shall be and remain suspended from the privileges of the Library until his indebtedness shall have been paid to the Treasurer, or until such Fellow, or Associate Fellow, shall have been excused by the Council for good and sufficient reason.

If any Fellow, or Associate Fellow, shall not have paid his dues or indebtedness for any one year by the first day of January following the calendar year for which the dues are a charge and shall not have had the same remitted by the Council, as per Article X, Section 12, of the By-Laws, such Fellow, or Associate Fellow, shall cease to be a member of the Academy, and shall lose and forfeit all his rights, title and interest in the Academy without further notification or action.

Any Fellow, or Associate Fellow, whose membership in the Academy has thus been terminated may be reinstated by the Council, in its discretion, within the next nine months on the written application of the delinquent and the payment of all indebtedness to the Academy, including the current year's dues.

XVII. SIGNING CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS.

SECTION 1. Every duly elected Fellow shall pay the admission fee and sign the Constitution and By-Laws within one month after election to Fellowship, and in default thereof, such election shall be deemed void, unless a reason satisfactory to the Council shall be given and the time extended.

SECTION 2. No one elected a Fellow shall be entitled to the rights and privileges of Fellowship until he shall have paid the admission fee and signed the Constitution and By-Laws, either in person or by proxy when unable to appear personally.

XVIII. ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

SECTION 1. Previous to the annual or any special election for officers, the President shall appoint three Fellows, who together with the Assistant Secretary shall form a Board of Tellers to record the names of all the voters at the election, and to receive and count the ballots cast.

SECTION 2. The Recording Secretary shall cause the names of all the nominees for each office and for all the offices to be printed on a single slip or ballot, one copy of which, together with a copy of this By-Law, shall be mailed to each Fellow with the notice of the election.

SECTION 3. All the officers shall be elected by ballot, each ballot to contain the names of all the nominees to be voted for, and by a majority vote of the Fellows present and voting. Ballots folded in each other, and blank or defective ballots, and ballots cast for a Fellow ineligible for office or not regularly nominated, shall be discarded and not counted.

SECTION 4. The poll shall be opened at seven-thirty o'clock on the evening of the election, and shall be kept open until nine o'clock, at which time it shall be declared closed by the Board of Tellers, and no votes shall thereafter be received, providing that all present who have the right to vote have been given an opportunity to do so.

SECTION 5. No Fellow who is in arrears, or whose current dues remain unpaid, or who is under suspension, shall be entitled to vote, or be eligible for office.

SECTION 6. At the close of the poll, the Board of Tellers shall immediately proceed to canvass the votes, and if upon their report it shall appear that no choice has been made in any one or more of the officers, a new balloting for such officers as are still to be elected shall take place, the poll for which shall be kept open until all present wishing to vote have voted, but not longer than thirty minutes. At the second and at each succeeding ballot, the name of the candidate having the fewest votes for each office in question shall be withdrawn.

XIX. TRANSACTIONS OF THE ACADEMY.

SECTION 1. A volume of Transactions shall be published, under the supervision of the Board of Trustees when ordered by the Council.

SECTION 2. Each Fellow, and Associate Fellow, shall be entitled to one copy, at cost price, or gratuitously, as the Council shall determine, of all publications of the Academy; Honorary Fellows, learned societies, public libraries and scientific periodicals may receive a complimentary copy of the Transactions on approval of the Council.

XX. ANNUAL REPORTS.

SECTION 1. The following named Officers and Committees and the Sections of the Academy shall annually in December, present full reports of their work to the Council at its regular meeting:

1. Board of Trustees
2. Treasurer, audited.
3. Corresponding Secretary.
4. Statistical Secretary
5. Committee on Admission.
6. Committee on Library.
7. Sections.

SECTION 2. All reports shall be duly signed, and with the report of the Council, shall be referred to the Academy, and read by the Recording Secretary at the Annual Meeting of the Academy in January.

All reports shall be written on paper of uniform size and quality, furnished by the Academy, and shall be bound in successive volumes, under the supervision of the Council, and preserved for reference.

XXI. ORDER OF BUSINESS AND RULES OF ORDER.

SECTION 1. The following shall be the order of business at stated meetings of the Academy.

1. Reading of Minutes.

At the First Meeting in November, the Nominations for Officers.

At the First Meeting in December, the Annual Election for Officers, from 7.30 P. M. to 9 P. M.

At the First Meeting in January, the Reading of Annual Reports, and the Addresses of the retiring President and the incoming President of the Academy.

2. Report of Council.
3. Report of Board of Trustees.
4. Report of Treasurer.
5. Report of Committee on Admission.
6. Report of Committee on Library.
7. Report of Corresponding Secretary.
8. Report of Statistical Secretary.
9. Reports of Sections in their order.
10. Reports of Special Committees.
11. Reading of Papers and Discourses.
12. Appointed Debates and Discussions.
13. Unfinished Business.
14. New Business.
15. Adjournment.

SECTION 2. All resolutions and amendments shall be offered in writing when required.

SECTION 3. Resolutions or reports concerning public questions not pertaining to the special objects of the Academy on which action is desired, shall be referred to the Council for its consideration and report.

SECTION 4. All questions of order, not provided for by these rules, shall be determined by parliamentary usage as expounded by Cushing's Manual.

XXII. AMENDMENT OF BY-LAWS.

These By-Laws may be suspended temporarily for a specific legal purpose, by unanimous vote, at any stated meeting of the Academy. They may be repealed or amended by a three-fourths vote of the Fellows present and voting at any stated or special meeting, provided that notice of the same shall have been given in writing at a previous stated or special meeting, and that the proposed amendments shall have been announced on the notice for the meeting when action is to be taken.

FORM FOR BEQUESTS.

The following is a brief legal form as a suggestion under which bequests may be made in behalf of the Academy:

I give, devise and bequeath unto "THE NEW YORK ACADEMY OF MEDICINE" of the City of New York, State of New York, a corporation duly incorporated by the Legislature of the State of New York by an act, entitled "An act to incorporate The New York Academy of Medicine," passed June 23, 1851, and amended June 4, 1853, and June 2, 1877.....

(Here insert the amount of money bequeathed, or a description either of specific personal or real property, or both, given, or if it be the residue of an estate, state that fact, and for what purpose, or Fund, the same is to be used for, or go to. For the special Funds already established see Historical Note.)
